

FREE PHONICS AND EARLY READING TRAINING

Now in the fourth year of our National English Hub designation we are delighted to be running a series of free training events demonstrating best practice in the teaching of phonics and early literacy.

These are events that enable you to see the practise and discuss the teaching of systematic synthetic phonics and promoting a love of reading.

Training includes:

- Introduction
- What is systematic synthetic phonics (SSP) and what does that look like in schools?
  - Virtual Tour of the school to see phonics and reading in action
  - The importance of developing a culture and love of reading in schools
- Commitment, fidelity and dedication to one scheme , the use of fully decodable books and resourcing.
- Receipt of the action planning documentation-submission required along with self referral for funding to be reimbursed

Who should book on?

These events are designed for Head/Senior leaders alongside Reception or Year 1 practitioners passionate about ensuring every child is a reader.

Places are limited to 2 places per school, supply cover will be reimbursed for teaching staff, if one member attending is the Head Teacher.
